

Public call for the 2015/2016 academic year for Applications for a Scholarship from the University of Ljubljana, Faculty of Economics Foundation

1. About the Foundation

The University of Ljubljana, Faculty of Economics (FELU) Foundation was founded with the aim of contributing to the Faculty's excellence by funding and offering other forms of support to outstanding local and foreign students as well as renowned visiting foreign professors.

The above mentioned activities are ways in which the Foundation contributes to the FELU's integration into the local as well as international business environment, and are a response to the economy's needs in the connection with the quality of academic work.

The FELU Foundation is granting a maximum of 10 scholarships in the 2015/2016 academic year in the overall amount of EUR 30,000 for the following programmes:

- Doctoral Programme
- Postgraduate programmes in English

Scholarships are granted in the form of payment of up to one-half of the value of the tuition fee.

2. Selection Criteria

Each application will be judged according to the following criteria:

- the average grade achieved in the preceding study obligations:
  - 30 points if the applicant's average grade is above 95% of the highest possible grade,
  - 20 points if the applicant's average grade is between 91% and 95% of the highest possible grade,
  - 10 points if the applicant's average grade is between 85% and 91% of the highest possible grade,
- a student's special achievement award brings up to 20 points,
- if the candidate completed part or all of their study obligations abroad in a country other than that of their permanent residency, up to 10 points,
- for the impression of a candidate (personal interview, case for support, published articles etc.) up to 20 points,
- for studying at a EQUIS, EPAS or AACSB accredited school up to 10 points.

3. Compulsory attachments to the scholarship application

The following documents must be attached to the scholarship application:

- confirmation of having completed preceding study obligations,
- a CV,
- GMAT,

- motivation letter, which has to include the applicant's reasons for enrolling in the programme,
- a recommendation letter from a professor from the FELU or a professor from your own faculty or school,
- confirmation of having submitted a study application.

4. Scholarship application deadline

The deadline for scholarship applications is 15 March 2015.

Applications should be sent to the address: Foundation of the Faculty of Economics, Kardeljeva ploščad 17, 1000 Ljubljana.

Candidates for the 2015/2016 academic year scholarship shall be chosen by the management of the FELU Foundation by 31 May 2015 at the latest.

5. Conditional and final provisions

In line with the Personal Data Protection Act (ZVOP-1, Ur. l. RS, no. 86/2004 and amendments), the management of the Foundation shall notify each individual candidate who submitted a complete and timely application by post, although it does not list names of the chosen candidates and the amount of their scholarships.

Based on its decision about the selection, the management of the Foundation shall enter into scholarship agreements. The scholarship agreements shall determine the rights and obligations of the contracting parties.

Application committee FELU Foundation

Prof. Dr. Tanja Mihalič

Prof. Dr. Vesna Žabkar

Prof. Dr. Andreja Cirman