Prof. Metka Tekavčič
Dean

Part-Time Master's Programme in Business and Organisation/ International Business Academy (IBA) is a programme specifically designed to meet the needs of working professionals and bachelor graduates without experience. The programme provides a strong, well-rounded foundation in economics and business administration fields and prepares participants for efficient and successful socially responsible management, proactive thinking, and creating added value. Built on a strategy of excellence, the programme aims to attract participants with the highest level of business and entrepreneurial ambition. During the programme you will develop as a person and learn how to spark growth in any organisation.

The programme courses will be delivered to you by our distinguished professors with much international experience in teaching and research. I believe that during the programme you will enhance your knowledge and skills to even better cope with challenges in the global, dynamic business environment that we live and work in. After successfully finishing the programme you will have the possibility of obtaining a master's from our institution after writing your master's thesis, in which I encourage you to collate all the knowledge from the programme and your personal experiences. Nevertheless, I hope that your experience will be fulfilling and that will open new horizons and new possibilities for your business and personal life.

The Business and Organisation Programme at the School of Economics and Business, University of Ljubljana is perfectly suited for working professionals who are looking to get a competitive edge for moving further ahead in their careers. During my studies, I had the chance to learn first hand from esteemed professors about how businesses function on a daily basis, how they develop strategies to achieve long-term goals, and how they make use of qualitatives.

Visar Hapciu, Policy Manager of the American Chamber of Commerce in Kosovo

We cannot change other people, we can only change ourselves. Investing in ourselves is the true power. I invested in myself by enrolling in the School of Economics and Business, University of Ljubljana. I made the right decision and got what I wanted; knowledge, practice and a prestigious diploma, all of which I utilize in my professional life. Lectures were given by renowned professors combining theory and practice. I met people from different professional backgrounds, I shared experience and built a valuable professional network.

Verita Aktash, HR Consultant / Trainer and Coach

As I see it, the IBA programme provides essential knowledge and skills for our future carriers. The programme has helped me to reshape the way of thinking about international markets. I updated knowledge and learned streamlined methods of doing business, while having the privilege of learning from the best professors in this part of Europe.
