

THE LAW OF BUSINESS ORGANISATIONS AND BUSINESS LAW

COURSE LEVEL: Bachelor

ECTS CREDITS: 6 ECTS

COURSE COORDINATOR: Mitja Kovač Ph.D.

COURSE GOALS: The course acquaints students with the design of the national legal order and the legal order of the European Union, fundamental institutions of corporate law, and basic status of companies and other legal entities. In the context of corporate law, the students learn about the basics of the registry law, workers' participation in management of companies with the basics and fundamentals of intellectual property and insolvency law. The business part of the course is to know the students with the fundamental institutions of property law and contract law is based, upgraded two most common types of contracts, namely sales agreement and work contract. Another objective is to know students basics of securities and the advantages and disadvantages of alternative forms of resolving commercial disputes.

COURSE CONTENT:

- 1. Introduction to the legal system EU
- 2. Arbitration and alternative dispute resolution (ADR)
- 3. Company law
 - 3.1. The Company Law Directives
 - 3.2. The General Partnership, Limited Partnership and Silent Partnership
 - 3.3. Close Corporations and Public Corporation
 - 3.4. Group of Companies
 - 3.5. Economic interest grouping; European economic interest grouping
 - 3.6. Bankruptcy and Corporate Insolvency
 - 3.7. Current Trends and future possibilities in Company law of the EU and USA
- 4. Intellectual Property Rights
 - 4.1. Industrial property
 - 4.2. Patents
 - 4.3. Trademarks and brand names
 - 4.4. Design
 - 4.5. Semiconductor Chip
 - 4.6. Copyright
 - 4.7. Competition Law of EC
- 5. Introduction to the Law of Obligation
 - 5.1. The Essentials of a Contract
 - 5.2. Rights to Real-estate property rights
 - 5.3. The Essentials of Contracts: Offer and Acceptance, Consideration and the Intention to create Legal Relations
- 6. Contracts for the Sale of Goods
 - 6.1. Incoterms 2000

- 6.2. The remedies of the seller and the buyer
- 6.3. Rights of the unpaid Seller against the Goods and Actions for breach of the Contract
- 7. Consumer protection
- 8. Commercial paper
- 8.1. Biles of exchange
- 8.2. Checks
- 8.3. Shares
- 8.4. Bill of Lading
- 8.5. Warehouse receipts
- 8.6. Payment and the liabilities of the parties

COURSE WORK PLAN:

The course consists of lectures, seminars and exercises, so that students / where it offers various ways of cooperation in understanding the subject matter.

By creating tutorial and homework, the students trainees for better view in-depth treatment of topics in the subject matter or topics that are directly related. In addition to in-depth learning about the professional structuring and writing skills, students tasks in the production of training to find appropriate sources of copyright and copyright compliance. In doing so, they assist the pedagogical worker who advises, directs them and points to irregularities in the work. Student who produce a paper, a presentation training seminar for public appearances and concise and effective presentation of the professional and support of various professional positions. With the successful completion and presented a paper, the student can be obtained up to 12 points, which he / she added to the result of the written examination. Instructions and basic directions for making homework and seminar paper are in “The rules of construction of tutorial and homework” (Pravila za izdelavo domačih in seminarskih nalog).

COURSE GRADE SYSTEM:

Colloquium: Students must pass two tests, the first in the last week of November and the second in the first week of January. For each colloquium can reach from 0 to 20 points, the average score is added to the points gained on the exam. Students that do not adhere to the two term examinations can adhere to the written exam, but the exam cannot reach more than 90 points.

Written Exam: The exam is conducted in writing and last 90 minutes. It consists of three parts: short test questions, at least one essay question and a practical example, which refers to the content discussed in class.

Students in written exam can reach a maximum of 90 points. The grading scale for final assessment: A positive result of 60 - 100 points, 60 - 67 (sufficient -d 6), 68 - 76 (good - db 7), 77 - 84 (very good - pd 8), 85 - 91 (very good -pdb. 9), over 92 (excellent - odl 10). Students reaching less than 60 points, they get a single estimate – insufficient - NZD (5). Students to carry out seminar paper, which, together with the presentation assessed by at least 8 points (out of a possible 12), exam performed with sufficient evaluation (6), if the test, taking into account the average number of points achieved from the tests at least 56 points .