- ☐ an interview and a sample of written work
- ☐ some other form of assessment, please specify:

I have assessed ___________________________ ’s language skills as follows:

SPEAKING
- ☐ Good (B1, CEFR*)
  She/He can deal with most situations likely to arise in familiar situations related to work and social life. She/he has enough vocabulary to manage in familiar everyday situations. She/He communicates with reasonable accuracy and, even if a foreign accent is sometimes evident and occasional mispronunciations occur, pronunciation is clearly intelligible.
- ☐ Very good (B2, CEFR*)
  She/He can handle successfully most communicative tasks and situations related to work and social life. She/He can express ideas and thoughts as coherent entities and support opinions. She/He has a good range of vocabulary for matters connected to her/his field and most general topics. She/He can use a range of words from her/his field, but lexical gaps can cause hesitation. She/He has good grammatical control and a clear, natural pronunciation and intonation.
- ☐ Advanced (C1, CEFR*)
  She/He speaks clearly and fluently about a great number of topics. She/He can present her/his point of view on a topic of her/his choice, with advance preparation. She/He maintains good grammatical control and vocabulary but may encounter difficulties with some less frequently used words and structures. She/He can vary intonation and place sentence stress correctly in order to express finer shades of meaning.
- ☐ Superior (C2, CEFR*)
  She/He speaks very fluently and in an appropriate style, and can communicate fine shades of meaning precisely. She/He has a sound and consistent command of grammar and vocabulary in almost all situations of language usage. She/He has a good command of idiomatic expressions.
- ☐ N/A

LISTENING
- ☐ Good (B1, CEFR*)
  She/He can understand the main points of clear standard speech on familiar matters. She/He can follow a lecture or talk within her/his own field, provided the subject matter is familiar and the presentation straightforward and clearly structured.
- ☐ Very good (B2, CEFR*)
  She/He can follow even complex lines of argument provided the topic is reasonably familiar and delivered in a standard dialect.
- ☐ Advanced (C1, CEFR*)
  She/He can follow most lectures, discussions and debates with relative ease. She/He can understand spoken language even when it is not clearly structured and when ideas and thoughts are not expressed in an explicit way.
- ☐ Superior (C2, CEFR*)
  She/He can understand, without difficulty, any kind of spoken language, both when heard live or in the media. She/He also understands a native speaker who speaks fast if given some time to get used to the accent.
- ☐ N/A
READING
☐ Good (B1, CEFR*)
She/He can understand texts that contain everyday or job-related language and that do not require expertise in the subject matter. She/He can recognise significant points and arguments in a text.

☐ Very good (B2, CEFR*)
She/He can understand texts on general topics, but not necessarily all shades of meaning in them. She/He can obtain information, ideas and opinions from specialised sources within her/his field.

☐ Advanced (C1, CEFR*)
She/He can understand a wide range of texts, even if they have complex grammar and vocabulary, and literary texts. She/He can understand specialised language in articles, reports and technical instructions even if they are not in her/his field.

| Duration of studies at the University of Ljubljana: | first semester | second semester | full year |

☐ In my opinion, should have no major difficulty in studying at the University of Ljubljana in which the language of instruction is the Slovene / English language.

☐ In my opinion, should improve her/his language skills before beginning study at the University of Ljubljana in which the language of instruction is the Slovene / English language.
