

Kearney Business Analyst

As a business analyst at Kearney, you will contribute to consulting project teams as they offer honest advice and practical guidance to our clients. Depending on each client's unique needs, projects can differ in length, size, and location, giving you unique, hands-on experiences across a range of industries and service practices.

Working alongside a dedicated and diverse set of people, you will broaden your knowledge and experience in an open, agile, and collaborative environment. With the freedom to be yourself and recognition for what you bring to the table, you can put your purpose into action and help build a future that works for everyone, everywhere—as a Kearney Original.

Key responsibilities

- Ensure the success of projects by completing tasks such as gathering and analyzing data and conducting competitor assessment studies.
- Support project workstreams and teams as you work alongside clients to create recommendations and implement co-created solutions.
- Assist the firm's business development through generating proposals.
- Contribute to the development of thought leadership and other internal and external reports and articles.
- Participate in firm building opportunities, e.g. recruiting, training, and mentoring.

Qualifications

After nearly 100 years, we know this business is fundamentally about making connections—between facts, figures, insights, strategies, tools, technologies, and above all, people. That's why we look for collaborative, insightful, and inquisitive problem-solvers who do not accept the first thing in front of them and who are always unapologetically themselves.

We want to hear from you if you are:

- Ready to share your ideas and contribute as soon as you join a team
- Analytically inclined and enjoy solving problems
- Able to prioritize and are a doer by nature
- Looking to kick-start your career in consulting
- In your final year of your undergraduate degree or non-MBA advanced degree
- Fluent in Slovenian and English

What we can offer you

Every day, our people work to be the difference for our clients, our communities, and our colleagues. Helping them make an impact, they are sustained by a competitive remuneration package plus comprehensive benefits and perks, including but not limited to:

- Structured and on-the-job learning and development opportunities
- Personalized opportunities, including talent mobility, flexible work programs, and externships to help you chart a unique career journey to pursue your own personal and professional goals
